AP, N.O. States-Item WR/Comment 19 Aug 72
[] filed Garrison

Dr. Russell H. Morgan says pathologist who examined JFK body at autopsy made a mistake, placing entrance wound into head four inches higher than initially reported, and that Warren Report failed to clarify this, leading to false speculations about the assassination.

See Garrison Chron cards 16 Jan 69, on Ramsey Clark releasing - before Shaw trial opened 21 Jan 69 - findings of panel of four medical experts, including Dr. Morgan, who had reviewed the autopsy material in secret 26 and 27 Feb 68.